

The Santo Tomás Estate

- Founded: 1888 by Francisco Adonegui and Miguel Olmart
- Region and grape source: The winery owns most of the land in Valle de Santo Tomás, (including the 150+ year old vines of the Único vineyard) as well as 20 hectares of land in the hamlet of San Antonio de las Minas in Valle de Guadalupe.
- Vineyard elevations and grape origins:
 - Valle de Guadalupe - Estate vineyards 900 ft (granite and clay soils)
 - Valle de Santo Tomás - Estate vineyards 500 ft (variable. High on the slopes it's mainly granite composed of large granite stones while down in the valley it's sandy soils high in iron and other minerals.
- Winemaker: Cristina Pino (Spanish born, now a Mexican citizen, lives in Valle de Guadalupe)
- Notes:
 - Cristina Pino is one of the most highly respected winemakers in the region and a perfect example of the many strong women that are a primary driving force behind the quality and elegance dominating the wines coming out of the region.
 - Santo Tomás is the oldest winery in the Baja region. Jesuit missionaries first established vineyards, (now privately held) in 1791 in this valley, just 5 years after the US signed its Constitution. Over a century later, in 1888 the land was purchased by Francisco Adonegui and Spaniard Miguel Olmart and became Mexico's first large scale commercial winery.
 - The largest landowners in the 5 valleys of northern Baja, Santo Tomás has access to some of the best fruit available. The quality and balance of their wines is a signature of the estate.
 - Since Christina took over in 2019 she has been covering to lower yields, increased quality, and working towards fully organic farming.

2022 Rosé - Santo Tomás

Tasting Notes and Drinking Window:

A summer breeze in the early afternoon just when you need it most, this gorgeous effort is an indication of what is to come from the talented Christina Pino as the newly appointed winemaker at Santo Tomás. Essence of watermelon rind, tropical fruits and green strawberry on the nose lead to a wine with a gripping spiral of acidity that strikes the perfect balance of fruit and tension. A perfect pair with a salad, spicy asian foods, or to break-up or wind-down your day, apply this to your life generously.
